Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Scripture readings encourage us to ask ourselves: am I humble, a virtue that finds favor with God?

As we know, Saint Francis de Sales considered humility the acceptance of who I am in the eyes of God. I would imagine none of us has to be reminded that we are sinners. We're often all too conscious of that fact. We don't always remember that Jesus came to earth to tell us sinners that our Father loves us. Jesus chose to die on the cross to save us from our sins and he rose to share his new life with us. Through our baptism, Jesus has made us his brothers and sisters - adopted children of his Father. We are now "graced sinners," loved by our God.

When I am thankful that I am a "graced sinner" in the eyes of God, then I am practicing true humility. All that we are and all that we have is gift -- a gift of God's love for us. When we accept that fact, then we can follow the advice Sirach offered us: "Conduct your affairs with humility." That will mean recognizing our own dignity as we go about our day. It will also help us to realize that the same dignity is God's gift to every person we meet.

God is choosing to live and work in me; God is also choosing to live and work in you. As I respect and honor God's presence in me, so I must try to respect and honor God's presence in you. This is the kind of humility we are asked to live today.

Remembering that I am a sinner will keep me aware of my limitations; remembering that I am graced will help me to trust in God's providence for me. Remembering that I am a sinner will keep me from judging others; remembering that I am graced will move me to reach out to others who are suffering. Remembering that I am a sinner will lead me to call on God's mercy frequently; remembering that I am graced will lead me to be thankful often during the day.

Let us be humble before the Lord and with one another today. Sirach assures us that we will find favor with God.

Saint of the Week

THE PASSION OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

The Church celebrates the passion of St. John the Baptist who died approximately A.D. 30. We know from the Bible that he was the cousin of Jesus, the son of St. Elizabeth, and also the nephew of our Lady. King Herod knew that John was a holy man, and he liked to hear John's words, although he didn't take them to heart. He knew that he had to get control of him because of the crowds he was starting to build. He was afraid to kill him, so instead he had him imprisoned.

According to the Gospels, Herod had imprisoned John because he spoke out about Herod divorcing his wife, and unlawfully taking the wife of his brother. On Herod's birthday, his new wife's daughter danced before the king and his guests. Her dancing pleased Herod so much that in his drunkenness he promised to give her anything she desired, up to half of his kingdom. When the daughter asked her mother what she should ask for, she was told to ask for the head of John the Baptist on a platter. Herod was appalled by the request but reluctantly agreed and had John the Baptist executed in prison. St. John the Baptist was beheaded, and his head was placed on a platter and given to Herod's daughter. Herod also feared that St. John's influence and power over the people might cause a rebellion. Over time, Herod had suffered military disaster at the hands of Aretas his father-in-law, and many believed it was God's punishment for his unrighteous behavior, and for taking the life of John the Baptist.

to Barbara Reid

Barbara has been a member of St Therese of Lisieux for more than 30 years and has been a part of many groups.

Barbara has made her mark here and now she is moving to Florida. It is with great sadness that the body of the church is seeing her go but wishing her happiness as she begins the new chapter in her life.

She will be dearly missed.

May God Bless her always.
